The unloading/loading chute is located on the North side of the barn (between the red gates). A stall chart is posted for all catalogued/supplement horses. Please put your horse in the stall assigned. Hay & Shavings are available for purchase from R & J Horse Sales-no straw is allowed. You are responsible for the feed and care of your horse. After you have your horse unloaded & in its assigned stall, bring your registration papers, breeders certificates, transfers, coggins, etc. to the office (this includes uncatalogued horses also). We request that you leave a halter on your horse after it sells. CATALOG/SUPPLEMENT HORSES MAY BE BROUGHT IN ON FRIDAY BEFORE THE SALE BEFORE 8:00 PM. If you are not able to bring your horse through the sales ring – Please notify the sale staff when you bring your horse to the sale and provide them with the address that the check should be mailed. A $5.00 fee will be accessed for this service. Purchasers – You are responsible for the feed and care of your horse after you buy it. We do not allow back alley trading –sale of all horses must go through the sale ring & office. TERMS AND CONDITIONS We urge buyers to thoroughly examine horses that interest them. All responsibility and guarantees are between buyer and seller. All sales are absolute and final. Buyers assume all expense and risk on horses after they leave the sales ring, but possession of the horse cannot be obtained until payment in full has been made. Sale is not responsible for sickness or accidents. Terms of the sale are cash and payment in full to be made immediately after the sale. All payment shall be in U.S. Currency. Please provide a bank letter of credit with personal checks unless credit has been established with R & J Horse Sale. All returned or insufficient checks will immediately be turned over the Wadena County Sheriff's Office and charges will be filed. The highest bidder will be the buyer. Any disputes arising between bidders on a horse in dispute shall be put up again for advanced bids. The Auctioneer reserves the right to reject any bid. If any person shall purchase a lot and not pay for it, nothing shall prevent sales management or the owner from compelling the purchaser to pay for it if the sales management or seller deems fit. Upon failure of compliance the lot shall be resold by public or private sale and the deficiency (if any) attending such resale shall be made good by the defaulter immediately. Buyers attend this sale at their own risk. Management cannot be responsible for accidents. Consignors are reminded to bring registration papers, breeding certificates and signed transfers the day of the sale. They must be turned into the office before the sale. Buyers are responsible for transfer and fees. Checks will be mailed the following week. Every effort has been made to assure correctness of the catalog but the sale management and auctioneers are not responsible for errors or omissions and assume no liability on its part or the part of the seller as to any statements either verbal or written regarding horses sold. All known defects will be announced before each horse is started. Therefore no horse can be rejected by buyer when struck off by the auctioneer. The seller guarantees all mares bred to stallions as indicated in catalog. We believe them to be in foal, but are selling them as they are and without return privileges unless otherwise specified. Horses cataloged and do not show at the sale will be accessed a $125.00 no show fee unless a veterinarian statement is presented. No loading or unloading horses after 9:00 p.m. unless prior arrangements have been made You must notify R & J Staff if you are unable to bring your horse through the ring.
