Horse to be transferred

- Be certain the photograph of the horse's markings on the registration certificate match the horse being purchased. If not, contact APHA immediately.
- It is the seller's responsibility to complete the transfer in its entirety before providing it, along with the original registration certificate, to the buyer.
- It is the buyer's responsibility to submit a signed and completed transfer form from the person they purchased the horse from, the original registration certificate and appropriate fees to APHA as soon as possible.
- Be certain the person selling the horse is listed on the horse's original registration certificate as the last owner of record. If not, additional transfer forms will be required before APHA can complete the transfer of ownership submitted. Additional transfer forms are available by contacting APHA or online at apha.com/forms.
- APHA cannot knowingly skip a transfer. Additional forms are available for each change in ownership.
- If the original registration certificate has been lost or destroyed, an Affidavit for Duplicate Certificate form must be completed. Affidavits are available by contacting APHA or online at apha.com/forms.

Signature

- Seller's signature is required for transfer of ownership.
- Signature must be an individual signature, or if the horse was owned jointly, the individual signature of either owner is acceptable.
- A Signature Authorization form must be on file at APHA if:
 - the seller or buyer is an authorized agent of a farm, ranch, partnership or corporation
 - if any of the joint owners are not authorized to sign
 - more than one signature is required

Fees

- Work is done in the order it's received; the RUSH fee moves your work to the front of the line. Include the following:
 1. Envelope marked "RUSH"
 2. Daytime phone number
 3. Certified funds or a credit card payment
- The rush fee will not be refunded.
- Minimum processing time for rush service is 10 business days from date received.
- Fees subject to change without notice.
- An office processing fee of $25 will be charged on all registration work not processed to completion.

Membership

- To take advantage of member rates, the buyer must have a current membership in the same name listed on the form. Memberships will be issued in the ownership listed on this form. Memberships begin the same month transfer is postmarked.
- If a membership is not purchased, nonmember fees will apply. Please see fee schedule in Rule Book.
